Williams, Thelma G. Hughes and Ann M. Reynolds, from Grove 6973 will be delegates to the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society's 40th biennial Virginia Jurisdiction Convention, May 13-15, at the Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, it was announced today by Ralph D. Reynolds, secretary of the local Woodmen lodge.

Registration for the more than 370 delegates and officers, representing more than 55,000 Virginia Woodmen members, will be from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m., May 13, according to President Kenneth Steiner, of Richmond, who will preside.

Convention speakers will include Woodmen National Directors T. Guy Crewe, of Omaha, Nebr., Robert Kirk, of Littlefield, Tex., and Harry Lawson, of Appomattox, Va. Also playing prominent roles in the convention will be two Woodmen state managers-Paul H. Smith, of Roanoke, and Bob VandeLinde, of Richmond.

The convention will open Friday evening with separate Ceremonies of Introduction for men and women. Degree Teams from Court 379, Lynchburg, and Camp 71, Appomattox, will perform the ceremonies.

On Saturday morning the presentation of an exhaust fan to the Vinton Rescue Squad will take place. This presentation will be made on behalf of the Jurisdiction.

A noon luncheon and fashion show for all the ladies will be sponsored by Court 362, Roanoke.

The afternoon session will feature an audiovisual report by Woodmen National President Nick T. Newberry. This report will highlight a gain from 908,000 members in 1980 to more than 930,000 members in 1982, the reaching of a goal of seven billion dollars of life insurance in force in 1982, and record-breaking fraternal, social and civic activity by local lodges.

The official convention banquet will be held Saturday night and will feature an address by Woodmen Executive Vice Pres. T. Guy Crewe.

The final convention session on Sunday morning will open with a devotional session. New officers will be installed to serve the Jurisdiction until the next convention in 1985.

New copy machine offered

Appomattox Office Supplies Inc., located at 507 Court Street, lower level of the Times-Virginian newspaper building, has added something new to their list of the "very best" in office supplies and equipment they offer their customers.....the Canon Copier.

Canon, U.S.A., Inc. has introduced a totally new concept in plain paper coping....the world's first cartridge copier system; it makes personal, at home copier's a reality for the first time. And, you can see it at Appomattox Office Supplies Inc.

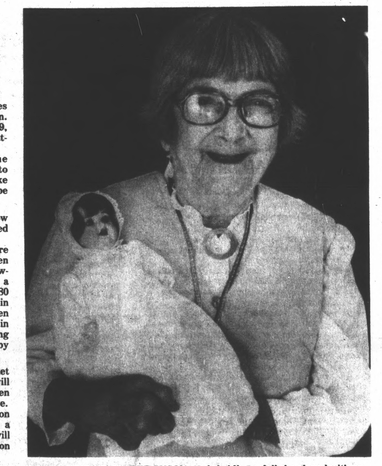
The Canon PC System features the first cartridge copying system. Upon making approximately 2,000 copies, the user simply snaps out the cartridge and snaps in a replacement, thus achieving virtual service-free operation.

As the world's smallest plain paper copier, each of the two Personal Carridge Copying System units weighs under 50 pounds and is about the size of an electronic typewriter. The PC-10 weighs 43 pounds and the PCV-20 weighs 49 pounds.

R. W. Carter is new trustee

Mr. Robert W. Carter of Route 2, Appomattox, has been elected to the board of trustees of Bluefield College, a Baptist College in Bluefield, Virginia.

Mr. Carter, an active member of the Liberty Baptist Church, is a graduate of Lynchburg College and of the University of Richmond school of Law.



MARY ELIZABETH FERGUSON, 68, is holding a doll she played with as a little girl and the doll is wearing a brand new outfit; dress, hat, slip and even panties, all trimmed with lace. The new outfit was made by Miss Ferguson's aunt, Mrs. Mary Lizzie Ferguson. Not only did Mrs. Ferguson make the new clothing for the doll but she created a wig for the doll out of a lock of hair that had belonged to Mary Elizabeth's uncle, Johnny Green. Reynolds honored

Ralph D. Reynolds, Sr., F.I.C., of Route 460 W, Appomattox, field representative for the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society, has been welcomed to a very exclusive membership in the President's Clubs of National Woodmen President Nick T. Newberry.

His membership in the Millionaire Section of the President's Clubs honors his top-rated performance in membership protection and service during 1982. Mr. Reynolds will be entitled to wear a gold emblem lapel pin inset with a ruby, emblematic of his accomplishment.

Members of the Club will meet with the national President next summer.

Job training offered

The Lynchburg Community Action Group, Lyn CAG, is offering an on-the-job training program which is designed to provide some level of skill training for those individuals with minimal skill levels. Employers are encouraged to accept these individuals into a training program tailored to fit the needs of both the employer and the trainee.

Any private-for-profit business employing a maximum of four (exclusive of the owner) is eligible to be considered for participation and funding.

What is it exactly? Basic on-the-job training as administered by the Governor's Employment Training Division, is subsidized training leading to permanent unsubsidized employment for those persons who are economically disadvantaged and in need of assistance to obtain and hold a job. The Governor's Employment Training Division acts for the Prime Sponsor for Virginia Balance of State under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendments of 1978.

The training takes place on the job and the employer is provided with an employee who is trained to do a job using the employer's methods.

Once an applicant has been screened for eligibility by the Governor's Employment Training Division of the Virginia Employment Commission, the individual is placed on the payroll of the business where he or she will get training for a training period not to exceed 90 days.

Lyn CAG O.J.T. Marketing Program will pay one half of the trainee's wages during this training period (excluding fringe benefits).

The employer is provided with a dependable, career oriented, productive employee. A potential asset to the productivity of the business as a fully trained worker.

The trainee is provided an opportunity to develop a marketable skill, an opportunity to become a self-supporting, productive member of society.

For more information, interested individuals may call O.J.T. Marketing, Lynchburg Community Action Group (Lyn CAG) 901 Main Street, Lynchburg, VA 24504 or call (804) 846-2433.

The Raider Review

By PHIL AGEE

Powder-puff football returns to Appomattox again this year for another game filled with non-stop action. The game will take place Saturday, May 28 at Bragg Stadium with the kickoff at 8 p.m. A rain date has been set for Monday, May 30.

The two teams will be composed of female athletes who are just as mean, if not meaner, than their male counterparts. The game will feature the super senior and freshman classes battling it out against the rough and tough junior and sophomore classes. Last year's game saw the juniors and sophomores claim a hard-fought 14-0 victory.

The ACHS band will be on hand to add to the spirit and excitement of the game. According to head ACHS football coach Gary Cuccio, male cheerleaders will also be a main attraction. During halftime, spectators will have the opportunity to select the best looking cheerleader.

Coaches for the seniors and freshmen include Dennis Fleshman, Jeff Miller, and Phil Agee. Tommy Robinson and Tim Williams will be assisting during practice sessions. Directing the juniors and sophomores will be Todd Scruggs, Scott Almond, and Larry Shorter.

Make plans to attend this year's game. "We expect plenty of action so come on out," said Cuccio. Powder puff football under the lights! Be there!

Students attend conference

By SUSAN GOGGIN

The Distributive Education Department sent four of its members to the State Leadership Conference held in Norfolk. Rebecca Doss and Darlene Smith went as voting delegates. Teresa Bass went for Student of the Year. She placed fourth in the top six finalists. She also completed her term of Central Area Vice President. Shelia Carrico competed in the category of General Merchandise.

The Employee-Employer Banquet was held on May 9, 1983. All DE members and their employers were invited to attend.

The final election of the 1983-84 DE Officers was held May 4 at the meeting. Election results will be announced in June.

The Distributive Education Advisory Committee met on May 3 to discuss the Program Goals and Objectives. The Adult Class scheduled was also discussed.

The Distributive Education office will remain open throughout the summer.
